The Bandstand, Lord Street, Southport. In the Municipal Gardens, besides the fine group of buildings, the Town Hall, Art Gallery and Public Library, there is a Bandstand in which the Corporation Band plays daily during the season. In the evening the trees of the Gardens are illuminated by thousands of electric lamps, producing a fine effect. In the Gardens is a bronze statue of Queen Victoria, modelled by Sir George Frampton, and standing on a pedestal of Aberdeen granite.
